HISTORY

Faculty

- Jeff Nichols

Program Goals

Westminster University History students will:

- Learn and practice traditional, digital, and community-based methods of primary historical research.
- Learn and practice constructing valid historical arguments based on original research in primary sources.
- Learn and practice communicating historical knowledge creatively and effectively via written, oral, digital and other means.
- Learn and practice skills of critical analysis of evidence, arguments, and conflicting historical interpretations.
- Begin to build a broad and deep content knowledge of global human history.

Objectives

The History Program is committed to helping students learn to make sense of the past. The Program emphasizes research and communication skills applicable to further History study and teaching, as well as to many other disciplines and careers. Students learn to ask significant questions about the past, often on-site or in the field; find and critically analyze the best primary and secondary sources, and communicate their findings to a variety of audiences through many means. Students may elect an academic major or minor.

Program Requirements

Enrollment in most history courses, except those designed exclusively for majors and minors, is open to all students who are enrolled in, or have completed, the history area WCore requirement, regardless of major field or class standing.

History majors and minors are encouraged to take HIST 241 (The Craft of History) in their second year of course work. HIST 241 is a prerequisite for HIST 390/490.

Students need to check with their History advisor regarding offerings for upcoming semesters. Upper division (300-level) history courses listed in the catalog may not be offered on a regular schedule. No student may register for HIST 390/490 more than three times unless there are legitimate circumstances outside of a student's control preventing successful completion of the first or second course.

History majors must complete an approved internship for at least two credit hours, and no more than four. Minors may complete an approved internship in lieu of up to four hours of upper division elective credit. Check with your History advisor about support for internships.

Note for Honors College students: HON 201 Foundational Conversations I may be substituted for HIST 102 or 124 required for the program while HON 202 may substitute for HIST 111, 204 or 206.

Students must meet the university-wide graduation requirements in addition to the History major:

- 124 total hours
- 30 upper division hours
- WCore or Honors College requirements
